United, we can eradicate poverty and increase social mobility for everyone in the Greater Triangle. Your generous donation will directly help families and children overcome current challenges and create a legacy of security for future generations.

Learn more about United Way’s work supporting Triangle residents before, during, and after COVID-19. For more information visit: www.unitedwaytriangle.org.